

CONTRIBUTORS AND EDITORS

Jessica Joy Candelario is the Pastoral Program Coordinator of Bukal ng Tipan (Wellspring of the Covenant), a mission-spirituality center working towards the vision of a participatory church in the world. She completed her Ph.D. in Practical Theology from St. Thomas University in Miami, Florida and is an adjunct faculty at the Ateneo de Manila University.

Bro. Carlito (Karl) Gaspar, Csr is a Redemptorist Brother who is a professor at the St. Alphonsus Theological and Mission Institute (SATMI), based in Davao City. He was born in Davao City and did his college studies at the Ateneo de Davao University (AB Sociology) and did graduate studies at the Asian Social Institute (M.S. Economics) and UP Diliman (PhD Philippine Studies). Xavier University also granted him an honorary PhD Humanities degree. He is a member of the Ecumenical Association of Third World Theologians (EATWOT) and the Philippine Catholic Theological Association (DAKATEO). Among his books are Manobo Dreams in Arakan (National Book award for Social Science), Desperately Seeking God's Saving Action (Cardinal Sin Catholic Book Award - Best in Spirituality and Ministry) and Handumanan (Remembrance) Digging for Indigenous Wellspring (Cardinal Sin Catholic Book Award - Best in Spirituality and Ministry, 2021).

Dennis T. Gonzalez is a married theologian and a parent of a daughter and a son. He completed his Doctorate in Sacred Theology (STD) with highest honors at the Catholic University of Louvain (KULeuven). He is a part-time faculty member at St. Vincent School of Theology, Q.C., and the Ateneo de Manila University (PhD in Leadership Studies program). He conducts regular bible study sessions for lay people of his parish, Sta. Maria Della Strada, and couples of the Worldwide Marriage Encounter movement. He is a past president of DaKaTeo. He can be reached through dengon1964@yahoo.com

Kristine C. Meneses earned her Ph.D. in Theology at the Adamson University - St. Vincent School of Theology. At present, she is affiliated with the Pontifical and Royal University of Santo Tomas. She is a Deaf and Disability activist and a volunteer sign language interpreter. She was a research fellow at the DePaul University, Chicago, Illinois, and an alumna of Bat Kol Institute - Christian Centre for Jewish Studies, Jerusalem. Most of her publications are focused on Disability Theology. She was the 2018-2020 coordinator of Ecclesia of Women in Asia. She is a member and a forum writer for the Catholic Theological Ethics in the World Church. She also holds membership in the Catholic Theological Society of the Philippines and the Catholic Biblical Association of the Philippines. She can be reached through krstn.rw@gmail.com or kcmeneses@ust.edu.ph

Reynaldo D. Raluto is a Roman Catholic priest of the Diocese of Malaybalay. He finished his theological seminary formation at San Jose Major Seminary and the Loyola School of Theology (both in Quezon City) in 2000. He was ordained to the priesthood on September 19, 2000. Fr. Rey holds a doctorate in theology from the Catholic University of Louvain (Belgium) in 2011. Since 2011, he serves as Dean of St. John Vianney Theological Seminary in Cagayan de Oro where he also teaches fundamental/systematic theology and Catholic social teaching. He is a member of the Damdaming Katoliko sa Teolohiya (the Catholic Theological Society of the Philippines) since 2012. He also serves as theological consultant of the CBCP-BEC Commission since 2018. Among his ecological advocacies are planting/growing Philippine native trees, mountain climbing, and joining the cultural and ecological activities of the indigenous peoples apostolate (IPA) of the Diocese of Malaybalay.